

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Every workplace needs transformative, visionary leaders. MACU's Master of Arts in Leadership program addresses this need by preparing you to lead with a deep understanding of theoretical foundations and applicable knowledge of Leadership.

The degree is ideal for many individuals, from workers with technical skills who wish to transition into positions of management to individuals who are already in positions of leadership but desire to polish their expertise. No matter your background, MACU's program will equip you with the skills you need to advance in your career and increase your impact in the workplace.

MACU's MA in Leadership prepares you to lead in any workplace through courses that focus on organizational culture, training, leadership theory and decision-making. The 100% online program emphasizes strategies of leading ethical and effective change, preparing you to manage rapidly-expanding work environments in today's marketplace. Classes last 6 weeks to fit your busy schedule!

Additionally, you will cultivate your skills in communication and teamwork. You will graduate as a leader equipped to manage yourself and others, identify and offer solutions to organizational problems, and initiate positive change in any setting. Some of the careers you can pursue include:

- Management Consultant
- Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
- Human Resources Management
- Corporate Trainer
- Management Positions
