

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Bachelor of Science in Ministry Leadership equips students with the skills to communicate, lead, and think biblically and theologically for entry-level ministry roles. Graduates can serve in various capacities, such as pastors, teachers, leaders, or administrators, within church, nonprofit, or parachurch organizations, and can also pursue graduate studies. The curriculum includes Bible and theology courses, along with topics like evangelism, discipleship, worship, youth ministry, pastoral care, church administration, and experiential learning opportunities.
