

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Women in Ministry Leadership Certificate program empowers students to explore and develop their calling in ministry. Students study the roles of people in the Bible, influential leaders, and assess their own gifts and skills for leadership and service in church or ministry settings. The program also helps build study skills for teaching and preaching, and credits can be applied toward the Christian Ministries bachelor's degree.

Non-Discrimination Policy: This University admits students of any race, color, disability, gender, religion, and national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally available to students. MACU does not discriminate based on race, color, and national or ethnic origin in administering our educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and other University administrative programs. This policy meets the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service's Revenue Procedure 75-70, dated March 1976. Please direct any inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies to the Title IX Coordinator, 3500 S.W. 119th Street, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73170, 405-691-3800.
