

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Mid-America Christian University's Master of Arts in Christian Ministry is designed for individuals called to serve in a wide range of Christian ministry roles, from pastoral leadership to faith-based organizational service. The program builds a solid foundation in biblical exegesis, Wesleyan-Arminian theology, and church history, while also emphasizing spiritual formation, pastoral care, and effective communication of the gospel through preaching, teaching, and evangelism. Students gain valuable insight into contemporary leadership, discipleship, and apologetics, equipping them to lead with confidence and clarity in both church and community-based ministry environments.
